ONLY MINOR INJURIES were suffered by a Fort Lauderdale woman Saturday when her car left SR 80 just east of Six Mile Bend and flipped over into a shallow drainage ditch. Florida Highway Patrol Trooper D. F. Hudson said Sgt. Charles Lowell of the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office was passing at the time of the accident and stopped to help Mrs. Shirley Rose Campbell, 43, from the wreckage. The car is shown as it was being turned right side up to remove it from the scene.

Lewis is a member of Appropriations Committee One, which deals with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Department of Offender Rehabilitation, both of which would be involved in the prospective move.

Since the committee met in Palm Beach County all last week, Lewis said, he and Bailey hosted the tour, which included Subcommittee Chairman Earl Dixon of Jacksonville and fellow members Gus Craig of St. Augustine and Beverly Brunson of Lakeland.

"They're a lot easier to persuade when you can get them out on the site," Lewis explained, "and when they left, they seemed favorably disposed to the idea."

The land in question is now owned by the Department of Offender Rehabilitation and Lewis and Bailey are attempting to get the land deeded over to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. see CENTER P9

SR80 paving delay protested by Lewis, county commission

The Palm Beach County Commission decided Tuesday to act as a body and reinforce action already taken by an angry District five Commissioner Bill Bailey and State Rep. Tom Lewis protest the delayed resurfacing of SR 80 from Belle Glade to 20 Mile Bend.

The State Department of Transportation had originally scheduled a resurfacing of the entire stretch of SR 80 from Belle Glade to West Palm Beach, beginning with the Belle Glade-20 Mile Bend stretch this month.

Bailey said in a letter he fired off Tuesday to Gov. Reubin Askew, Lt. Gov. Jim Williams and the entire Palm Beach County Legislative Delegation he recently learned the resurfacing has been rescheduled for next fiscal year which would delay the contract letting until July 1978 at the earliest.

"This is a gross injustice to the people who must travel this road,"

Bailey wrote in the letter. "All of the projects listed are urgently needed now, but this one is in the worst shape it has ever been."

"You cannot find a State Road in the whole state which needs resurfacing more than this one," he said, "much less in District Four!"

"I urge you to please call in your chips on this one," Bailey concluded, "and save some lives by doing everything you possibly can to get this project back on the list for bid letting as soon as possible!"

Bailey moved Tuesday during the regular County Commission meeting to ask the DOT to place the resurfacing job back on the priority list and the commission agreed.

Meanwhile, in Tallahassee, Tom Lewis said Wednesday he had also been working on the problem and had talked that morning with DOT Secretary Tom Webb and DOT District Four Engineer William Fowler about the rescheduling.

"The gave the old story," Lewis said, "that the plans for the jobs weren't complete and plans for another job were so they had to spend the money where things were ready to go. "What had me so upset," he said, "and I told them, was that a year ago, I offered to get them help in the planning stages if they needed it and they never got back to me."

Lewis said he was supposed to be in touch with Webb again later in the day Wednesday and might have more information at that time but said he definitely hasn't given up on getting the resurfacing started before next fiscal year.

He said one of his biggest concerns would be the timing of the construction job should the work be postponed until Fiscal Year 1978-79.

"If they wait until July to fund the project," he said, "it'll be another 60 days before bids are let and another 30 days beyond that before the contractor can begin his work...and that puts us right in the middle of the harvest season."

"That would be disastrous," Lewis went on. "I told them (Webb and Fowler) it could mean another 10 or 15 people killed. I said if they decided to wait until

Will is dead at 84

WEST PALM BEACH-Private funeral services for Lawrence E. Will, the Cracker Historian who was one of the pioneers in Belle Glade, were held Friday at Hillcrest Memorial Park here.

Born in Wisconsin, Will first came to the Glades at 20 in 1913 as one of a party of four men to clear space at Okeelanta in one of the area's first farming communities. At 68, he began writing the first of a series of six books, later contributing his column, Sawgrass Sagas, to The Belle Glade Herald.

He was 84 years of age at the time of his death Thursday in John F. Kennedy Hospital in Atlanta. He had lived in West Palm Beach for the past three years with his wife, Anne.

During a varied career in the Glades, Will was by turn a farmer, a floating dredge operator, a licensed operator of passenger and freight boats, engaging in transportation between settlements on Lake Okeechobee and the East Coast before roads were built, and a businessman, founding Pioneer Motors, the oldest business in Belle Glade.

He was a founder and first chief of the Belle Glade Volunteer Fire Department, served on the town council after participating in the meeting which saw the city incorporated and was a 50 year member of the Belle Glade Masonic Lodge and Lodge 20 of the American Legion, helping found both organizations.

The books Will wrote on the Glades included "Comprehensive

Lawrence Will

Report on Central and Southern Florida for Flood Control and Other Purposes," "A Dredgeman of Cape Sable," "Lawrence Will's Cracker History of Okeechobee," "Okeechobee Hurricane and the

Santa letters appear next week

Something special will be added next week to the Belle Glade Herald and Everglades Observer...a special Christmas section containing delightful letters to Santa Claus written by children in the second and third grades of area schools.

The special section will be published in addition to the regular two sections.

Several hundred letters have been received and will be in the issue. They were set as the children wrote them, leaving in the errors in spelling, punctuation, and grammar the children made.

"The best thing about the Christmas section letters," one employee of the newspaper said, "is that we get to read them first."

In addition to the letters, many of the area's businesses have placed Christmas greeting card ads in the section, letting their customers know they appreciate their business and wishing them the best in the upcoming holidays.

"We're sure you'll be delightfully surprised with the section this year," said publisher Biff Lampton. "We want to thank the local schools for their cooperation with the letters and local businesses for their advertising support, which makes this section possible."

The section will be on the newstands and in the mail Thursday morning.

Dear Santa:

I'm putting in my order a little early this year. Last year, if you can remember, you kinda got mine mixed up with all those letters we published. And the truth is, Santa, I really didn't want a Barbie doll. So, since I have a little something to say about what goes into this newspaper, I'm putting my letter in this week instead of next week, when we have all those letters from second and third graders in our special Christmas issue.

This year, we have letters from just about every child in those grades who lives in South Bay, Pahokee, Belle Glade, and points in between. We'll be mailing you a bundle of papers so you can look over the requests before hitching up your reindeer on Dec. 24.

By the way, some of these letters are very, very good. There are the usual "wants" of children, including bikes, trikes, dolls, pistols, and games, but some of these children want a great deal more.

These should receive special attention Santa. Because the children who wrote them are very special themselves.

I'm talking about the youngsters who not only make toy requests, but also go out of their way to make requests for their brothers and sisters and kids less fortunate than themselves.

That shows a lot of maturity for nine and ten-year-olds, Santa. And it shows the child is unselfish, which is a pretty good indication he or she has been good all year long.

Some of those letters well be publishing are also very honest. Santa. A few children admitted that maybe they haven't been as good as they needed to be, but they'll try harder next year if you go ahead and call on them this year. Personally, this looks like the best Christmas ever for me and my family. My boy Burke is almost two now and he's real sure of what is going on, but something wonderful is about to happen.

He "helped" his mother put up the Christmas tree this year, so if the tinsel is on a little crooked, it really doesn't harm the beauty of that symbol.

Burke, I think, realizes some mysterious figure called Santa is going to come along shortly and deliver him a "cycle." That's what he wants, Santa, maybe I can anything else. A "cycle." It's up to you to figure out just what a "cycle" is. Lilly says it's a trike, but I think it's really that little bicycle with training wheels he climbed aboard in a local store recently.

It won't take long for his feet to reach the pedals, Santa. But you decide. I may be overruled by the better half.

I'm happy to report Burke has been good this year. At least most of the time. He still doesn't want to go to bed every night when he's supposed to and he has been known to climb down out of his bed and sit on my chest, jumping up and down, in the wee hours of the morning.

And he's about eaten all the candy canes off the Christmas tree. And the dog lives in mortal fear of him ever since Burke grabbed him by the scruff of the neck, climbed aboard like a miniature cowboy, and bellowed "GO".

But I don't call that being bad, Santa. Just being a boy.

Since I was going to write, Lilly asked that I put in her order, too. She said she wanted some new carpet, a new sofa, earrings, fourteen different kinds of perfume, a couple of those "worst" kitchen appliances, some new lamps, a mirror for her dresser, and a cage to keep Burke in. But she's just kidding, Santa. I really know what she wants.

What she wants, with all her heart, is that little double-barrel 20-gauge shotgun. And won't she be surprised to find it under the Christmas tree! Maybe she'll even lend it to me to "break it in" properly for her.

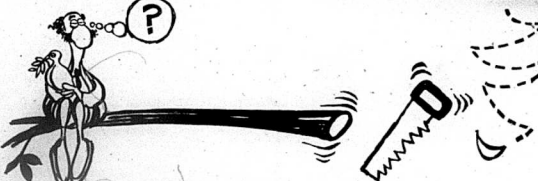

And another thing she wants, Santa, is an ultra-light spinning outfit. So she can go over to the coast and fish for seastrout in proper fashion. I know, I know. You're right. She doesn't go seastrout fishing very often, but maybe she can lend me that little outfit upon occasion, if I promise to take care of it.

That's about it, Santa. Me? Well Santa, I don't really want anything this year...for myself, I mean. Just take care of Lilly and Burke.

Your friend,
Burr

Shop at home

With Christmas little more than a week away, one of the more common "events" for Glades residents is the annual trek to West Palm Beach to do the holiday shopping.

Why not make it a not-trek this year and see what can be picked up locally?

There are a number of good reasons for saving the gas and effort to make the hundred-mile round trip but one of the best is what trading locally does for your dollar.

According to economists, every dollar spent in a community will grow two to four times and some of two to four dollars comes back to the person who spent the original dollar...if in nothing more than improved streets and municipal services.

Spend a dollar in West Palm beach and it grows too. And stays right there...which is one reason for the old adage that the rich get richer. And they'll continue getting richer as long as we make those shopping trips to the coast.

Of course, there is the argument that going to the coast provides adventure in what may otherwise be a dull existence but who needs the adventure of wondering whether Killer 80 is going to claim another victim today?

There are some things a person simply can't get in the Glades and for those goods and services we all have to make the trip but why not take a leaf from the law's notebook this year.

Support your local Sheriff but while you're doing that, support your local merchant too. Nothing breeds success like success and if a market is shown for goods and services, someone's going to supply that market.

The none of us will have to go to the coast for anything we want.

Cheap shot

When gubernatorial candidate Bruce Smathers announced recently he's going to do what he can to require competency testing of teachers, the FTP-NEA, Florida's largest teachers union called the announcement a "political cheap shot."

The teachers were probably right. Smathers probably simply latched onto what he considered to be a good, controversial issue and decided to get what mileage he could out of it.

But even if that much is true, it doesn't make the original issue go away. FTP-NEA Executive Director Don Cameron admitted teachers, parents and administrators are all responsible for providing a quality education for Florida students, then went on to say it does no good to point a finger of blame, that there is enough to go around for everyone.

So perhaps Smathers was right. Maybe we should begin competency testing of teachers and extend it to the administrators too.

Lawrence Will

With Lawrence E. Will, a part of the Glades has passed into history and because of Will a large part of that history will be with us always.

It's a rare man who begins the major part of his life's work, or at least the part for which he is remembered, after "retirement" and it's a rare historian who writes history largely from personal experiences.

Will was both, first coming to the Glades as one of the area's earliest settlers to scratch out an existence in the Okeelanta settlement in 1913, going through a number of occupations until 1968, when he retired to begin writing his six volumes of history.

As a pioneer in the Lake Okeechobee area, Will turned his hands to many occupations, beginning here, at the age of 20, as a farmer, and moving on to other jobs, including operating a floating dredge, operating passenger and freight boats and winding up opening his own garage, Pioneer Motors, which is now the oldest business in town.

As a civic leader, Will was on hand for that historic churchhouse meeting which founded the City of Belle Glade, helped found the Belle Glade Volunteer Fire department, which he served as the first chief for 30 years after helping fight the settlement's first fire, was a founding member of the local American Legion Post and the local Masonic Lodge and was one of those who helped Belle Glade dig out from under the 1928 Hurricane.

Most of those occupations and virtually all his civic experiences became grist for the mill when Will began putting his memories, and those of friends who were on hand for events Will missed, down in the six volumes of history he wrote on the area and, later, the column he called "Sawgrass Sagas" which he wrote for The Belle Glade Herald.

His contributions to recording the history of the area were recognized in 1975 when he was named Historian of the Year by the Peace River Valley Historical Society and in 1976 when he was on hand to cut the ribbon of the Lawrence Will Museum at the Belle Glade Municipal Library.

Although he was born in Wisconsin and didn't come to the Glades until his 20th year, Will wrote his best works in the Cracker dialect, earning for himself the name, The Cracker Historian.

Because of men like Lawrence Will, and their women who came to the Glades with them, this area became one of the richest and most productive agricultural areas in the United States.

Because of Will, we, our children and our grandchildren can see how they did it and what their lives were like while they were doing it.

That's a legacy worth remembering.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

It's bad enough, as Willie Shakespeare put it, to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune. I don't really need the petty postulations of powerless people professing friendship.

And I imagine Mike Miller and Skipper Bowles feel the same way. Break, heart! The vulgures have already ripped you from my bleeding carcass and I have no further use for you.

How about it, Mike and Skipper? Tired of having salt and alum rubbed into the bloodless wounds? Our turn will come. If every dog has its day, why not Gators and Colts?

Course you guys were a bit luckier. Your grief didn't start until Monday night. The jacksals from the Florida Girls School up in Tallahassee way couldn't even wait past half-time on Saturday to start snapping at the downed Gator and mouthing obscene howls of glee.

Didn't take those Dolphins long either, did it? Come Monday morning, Skipper's served up a whole crow pie over at Fr-Eddy's and along about noon, Mike comes back from lunch and finds a funeral arrangement of flowers expressing "sympathy" on the recent great loss of the Baltimore Colts.

More salt for my wounds came in the mail Wednesday morning... from my own brother-in-law. Just didn't have the money for flowers, I guess, just a sympathy card. He didn't have to sign it either. I knew where that came from.

The unkindest cut of all for the Colt fans in the area came Thursday (managed to drag it out over a whole week, didn't they?), when Bill Mathis, in a totally unprovoked attack, presented framed caricatures of a dolphin performing cruel, impossible and ridiculous things to a hapless colt.

Oh, the pain, humiliation and mortification of backing the losing football team!

But this seems to have been the week for unwarranted attacks, such as the unprovoked, misguided massive waiting for me in regards to last week's column from one laughingly referring to himself as Fireball Bickel, a partner of mine in the recent road rally.

In the interests of fairness and equal time here is Fireball's comment, at least those reasons for still another loss which fit in print.

1) Letting a lady (whose name I shall protect here) delay our second return.

2) Having such a large car it took us twice as long in making those U-turns as it should have.

3) You are much older (didn't take him long to get in an attack on my encroaching senility, did it?) and a more learned man than myself, therefore you should have known better than to listen to me anyway.

4) You were doing the driving. Being as stubborn (there he goes again) as you are, I know from experience you should have done what you felt was right no matter what I said (trying to twist out of a fair share of responsibility, huh?).

5) You should have known that I can't follow directions so when the sign said SPEED 35 LIMIT instead of SPEED LIMIT 35, you have known it was the wrong sign. Dummy!

6) Being so darn good in math (an observation which would definitely startle any or all of my former instructors in the street, if you would have figured the score card wrong, we might have felt better when they replaced us from tenth to fifth (something which probably wouldn't have happened anyway, since the fix was in).

Due to the above listings, I feel you made us lose the first place trophy which rightfully belonged to us instead of Chief Billy. The rest of the note is simply an acknowledgement we haven't spoken a civil word since the rally (no wonder, I never did like to associate with losers) and some comment about whether we should continue holding those "keep your neighbors awake parties." Don't listen to him land-lords, he's just kidding.

But Good Lord, what a week for inactivity! The only saving grace I could wrest from it is that it's one of the last in 1977, a year I could cheerfully pretend in years to come, always assuming I'm around in years to come, never really happened.

Mikell is elected by bankers

BELLE GLADE-Bank of Belle Glade President W. Wayne Mikell was elected recently to serve as vice chairman of FBA Group 7 of the Florida Bankers Association. Mikell was elected Nov. 2 during a meeting held at Pier 66 Hotel in Fort Lauderdale.

The Florida Bankers Association is the state trade association for more than 600 commercial banks, trust banks and trust companies in Florida.

The Association is the legislative voice of the industry in matters affecting banks and bank customers and is the organization through which Florida bankers accomplish their industry tasks of banker education, inter-bank communications and public relations.

Group 7 is one of eight local organizations in the state through which goals and objectives of the association are implemented.

Journalistic club starts at Pahokee High School

PAHOKEE-Starting a new tradition at Pahokee High School, Mrs. Deborah Doyle and Miss Deborah Wright have organized a school chapter of Quill and Scroll, the honorary journalistic society for high school students. The charter induction was held Tuesday, Dec. 13 at 9:15 a.m. in the school auditorium.

Quill and Scroll is an international society whose prospects must meet certain criteria for membership. They must be in the upper third of their class scholastically, perform superior work in some aspect of journalism, such as editing or photography, and be recommended for membership by a school sponsor or supervisor in the community. Mrs. Doyle told those seniors present for the ceremony. Members must also work on either a school publication or a community publication.

The Pahokee High School students chosen for membership were all seniors, another criterion for the initial charter induction at Pahokee High. Miss Wright said that a second induction will be held in the spring, for both juniors and seniors. Miss Wright is sponsor of the school yearbook staff and Mrs. Doyle is sponsor of the school newspaper.

According to the Quill and Scroll handbook, the society "was organized with the end in view of recognizing and rewarding ability and achievement in writing and other phases of journalistic work in high school," with the motto always in the forefront, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Those seniors inducted Tuesday were: Betty Trimble and Steve Kemp, both of the Devil's Trail Yearbook Staff, Eric Rhinehart, working with the Glades Trend, Mia Parris, working with the Everglades Observer, Hector Llorens and Vince Bush, co-editors of the Devil's Tale newspaper and Dewey Jackson, feature editor of the Devil's Tale newspaper.

Belle Glade police to record all calls

BELLE GLADE-The City Police Department will soon solve a problem Chief Bill Mathis has been working on for more than three years when a system is installed to record all incoming calls over telephone and radio.

Mathis said Tuesday the multi-channel logging recorder/reproducer system approved for purchase Monday by the city commission would improve the integrity of the department's records.

"Anything recorded has more integrity," he explained, "than a person writing the information into the logbook. Sometimes we have a person say they didn't call us to make a complaint. This will give us a record of that call."

Mathis said the system, which he said is due to be installed within 90 days from the date of the order, can record 20 conversations simultaneously along with a visual record of the time the calls were made.

He said the system also has an instant playback capability in case there is any question about what has been said immediately after the conversation was held.

"Most of the larger departments have gone over to this type of system several years ago," Mathis said. "We actually drew up the specifications three years ago and modified them last year. That was the first time it was seriously considered by the commission."

One bright spot in the bids for the new equipment is that they came in approximately $5,000 under what had been estimated. Dictaphone won the bid at $13,458.92.

Those being inducted and receiving Bobcat badges included Jason Mann, Robert Archer, John Mann, Darren Shoefeld, and DeWitt Dulany.

City to audit Community Development Dept. following arrest of former director

BELLE GLADE-The City Commission decided Monday night, in the wake of former Community Development Program Director George Gartner's arrest, to have an outside firm do a line item audit of the program over at least the last two years.

Kenneth Harris, in proposing the audit, "to ease this hollow feeling in the pit of my stomach," said he wanted a physical inventory of every item controlled by the program rather than the normal in-house type of audit.

The commissioners voted, 4-0, in the absence of Commissioner William Grear, on the measure after Gartner, who directed the CD program for the city from 1974 until June of this year, was arrested last week on charges of grand larceny by fraud.

Gartner was accused of paying out more than $10,000 of CD funds to pay for an allegedly bogus energy report by a company named GPM Systems. According to state's attorney's investigation, the company was owned by Gartner and he was the only person authorized to cash checks.

According to State's Attorney David Bludworth, the investigation began when city employees found the canceled checks and were unable to find the report they paid for.

Harris indicated he wanted to make sure by having an outside firm do the audit that there were no more problems or, if there were, where they were.

City Manager Robert R. Sanders said there is a possibility there may be a county or state agency the city can find to do the audit at no cost to the city and the commissioners authorized him to try to find such an agency.

Harris said he would also like to see a monthly progress report of what the CD program is doing included in the commissioners' packets of information.

Sanders said that was no problem because Remar Harvin, the new CD director, started preparing the progress reports and submitted his first one recently but too late to include in the commissioners' packets this week.

Winn Dixie burglarized

BELLE GLADE—Police reported Monday thieves had broken into the Winn-Dixie supermarket on West Canal Street North Sunday night and made off with an estimated $3,000 worth of watches, calculators and cigarettes.

Lt. Michael Miller of Belle Glade Police Dept. said someone had used a pickaxe or pickaxes to punch their way through the concrete roof of the building. Miller said Detective Jerry Portney was still investigating the incident.

One of Thomas A. Edison's little known inventions was a talking doll, the first one of its kind, built in 1888. He made several hundred of them, but after his company sold the manufacturing rights to another firm, he destroyed all the dolls.

Poinsetta is highly prized

Highly prized throughout Florida and widely loved as a symbol of the Christmas season is the Poinsetta. No other flower can make such a brilliant show of bright red throughout the festive weeks of December and January.

The poinsetta, Euphorbia Pulcherrima, is a member of the spurge family which includes common ornamentals like crown-of-thorns, copper-leaf, castorbean and Florida's colorful croton.

Since the purchase of poinsettias is a once-a-year thing for most people several suggestions on proper plant selection are in order.

The Poinsetta buyer should do the following:

Select a plant which has green foliage nearly to the soil line. Old plants will usually have experienced excessive leaf drop. Foliage drop is also caused by fluctuating temperatures, gas fumes, soil problems and plant pests.

The bracts should be large and extend over the lower green foliage. The most popular color in poinsettias is red. However, there are numerous shades of whites, pinks and color combinations.

Select only plants with small tight green button-like flower parts in the center of the bracts. These little buttons will eventually develop into open flowers. If the poinsettia is already producing pollen, you can be assured that a portion of its useful display life has already passed and the bracts will begin to fade.

Poinsettias are predominately greenhouse grown as pot plants for Christmas in most of the United States, but in South Florida they can be utilized as colorful landscape shrubs.

Another excellent use of poinsettias is as cut flowers. The bracts need to be treated to coagulate the milky sap and reduce wilting. Immerse the cut end of the stem in hot water for one minute and then place immediately in cold water. An alternate method is to singe the cut end of the stem over a flame for a second or two and then place in cool water. Cut the flowers at least 18-24 hours before they are to be used and store in a cool place.

Don't spoil your pets

Be careful about sharing your holiday cheer with your pet, warns the Florida Veterinary Medical Association (FVMA). Pets, like people, can suffer from too much food and drink during the holiday season, according to the state professional society of veterinarians.

H. Larry Gore, D.V.M., of Orlando, who is executive vice president of the FVMA, said there is "no excuse" for owners who give their dogs too many table scraps, excessive sweets and especially alcoholic beverages. But it happens more frequently than one would guess, he added.

"I'll never forget my first Christmas in practice," Dr. Gore said. "I received dozens of phone calls from people asking what to do about animals sick from holiday sweets and alcohol."

The Belle Glade 20 Mile Bend job was to have made up 19 miles of 49.6 miles of roads to have been resurfaced in the Glades in seven projects scheduled to have been let between this month and August 1978.

The other projects would have seen the repaving of 6.5 miles of US 27, 0.1 miles of SR 80 between Southwest Ave. E and Hillsboro Canal in Belle Glade, 13.2 miles of SR 15, 2.3 miles of SR 15A and 8.5 miles of SR 700.

Chamber sets goals for 1978

BELLE GLADE—Directors of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce agreed last week to support a list of nine goals for the coming year, covering areas ranging from membership to local promotions.

Chamber President Dale Stapp said the goals weren't arranged in any particular order of priority but they include:

1. Erect directional signs outside the city, points of interest in the community.
2. Get involved in projects to improve the community and relationship between the membership.
3. Advertise and promote the Historical Lawrence Will Museum and the new Palm Beach Junior College.
4. Support the Glades Airport Committee and Department of Transportation in improvement of the airport.
5. The Board of Directors is to make personal contact with all new businesses locating in the community.
6. Strive toward better relations with the city officials and the Chamber of Commerce.
7. Build a new Chamber office in a more accessible location with ample parking area.
8. Hold periodical coffee meetings with the active membership to improve relationship between the board and the general membership.
9. Organize a local Small Business Counseling Service in the Glades.

"I think this is a good set of goals," Stapp told the directors. "They're all achievable."

Several of the goals are already in the works, such as the efforts to get a new office building located in the civic complex in McDonald Park and the coffee to promote a better understanding by the general membership of what the chamber is doing for them.

Others, such as the decision to erect directional signs on the outskirts of town, were assigned to particular directors during the meeting held last Thursday.

In other business, Stapp assigned committee seats to members of the directors for the coming year and the directors agreed the Chamber would take part in the city's 50th Anniversary Celebration coming up April 8.

The directors agreed to sponsor a fish fry for the celebration, which will be held at the marina from 4:30 to 7 p.m. the day of the construction is completed by Wayne Blackwell Construction Company of Miami. The building was supposed to have been completed this month but it now appears the move won't be made until sometime after the first of the year.

Pieces falling into place for new city hall building

BELLE GLADE—The final phases of construction of the new city hall began to take shape this week as the City Commission tied up a number of loose ends left dangling before the city can move into the new headquarters about Jan. 1.

The longest of those strings was the awarding of a $40,870 bid to Eden's Construction Company of Belle Glade to pave the driveways and parking area for the city hall complex.

Eden's was the low bid, coming in almost $5,000 under the only other bid by Rubin Construction Company of West Palm Beach. The contract calls for a completion date 45 days after beginning work.

The commissioners also approved a request by City Manager Robert R. Sanders to purchase five floor cleaning machines which will be used to maintain the new building.

Sanders reminded the commissioners they had authorized a total of $50,000 to furnish the new building and the $2,022 approved for the floor cleaning machines brings the total thus far to about $52,000, "and this is just about everything."

To maintain the building, Sanders reported the city has hired three men whose only jobs will be custodial care of the city hall and the city library.

"They've been going to a custodial care school in West Palm Beach for the last three weeks," Sanders said, "and today they began to practice on the library. We've released the company we'd been using to clean up the library."

Sanders had received permission some time back to have the three custodians directly responsible for the new city hall and the library rather than have a professional company or the Buildings and Grounds crews do the work. He said custodial work has become complex enough to warrant the three trained men.

Another loose string left dangling Monday night by the commission, however, was an agreement with Security Central, Inc. to provide an electronic alarm system, both for fires and burglary, for protection of the new city hall.

The agreement had been hanging fire for about a month now because City Attorney John Baker has advised the commissioners against signing the contract until a few changes are made, specifically a clause which would allow the company to raise its rates without giving the city the option of getting out from under the agreement.

Baker told the commissioners he is still waiting for the company to send him a copy of their agreements so he could revise it the way he believes would be best for the city.

In other business, the commission:

- Approved an agreement to provide water under emergency conditions to South Bay, subject to South Bay's approval of the agreement.

- Rejected on a 2-2 vote a request to allow the Starlight Lounge at 301 S.W. Sixth St. to sell package liquors as well as the beer and wine it can now sell. The motion came in the form of approving an ordinance on the first reading to change the zoning.

The rejection followed by two weeks a 4-1 approval when Commissioner Kenneth Harris was the only commissioner voting against the move. Monday, when he failed to get the motion on the floor from one of the other commissioners, Mayor Tom Altman relinquished the chair to Vice-Mayor Harris and made the motion himself.

- Commissioner Claude Tindall seconded the motion but it failed in the 2-2 deadlock when Harris and Commissioner Ralph Kirk voted against it.

- Passed on first reading an ordinance adopting the National Fire Protection Association Code as a reference for a city fire code.

- Approved a request by Milton C. Rader for 6,000 gallons of sewage to be allocated to a building to be built by Rader at 355 S.W. Ave. E.

- Decided to reschedule the next regular meeting for 8 p.m. Dec. 27 instead of the normal Dec.

26 meeting, which would have fallen on the Christmas holiday.

TAKING TIME OUT from the festivities for an amiable confab at the Palm Beach County League of Municipalities annual barbeque here were Belle Glade Commissioner Claude Tindall, County Tax Collector Allen Clark and County State's Attorney David Bludworth. Looking on from behind was Theo York, Bludworth's assistant in the Glades.

A time to talk

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT Dr. Joseph Carroll was one of the numerous guests Friday at the Palm Beach Municipal League's annual barbeque hosted by the Cities of Pahokee, Belle Glade and South Bay at the Aubrey Farmer Pavilion. The barbeque is traditionally an opportunity to discuss business as well as socialize and Carroll was talking to Barker, Osha and Anderson engineer Richard Ormon.

Christian Day scores first-time victories

On Friday, December 9, a first in Christian Day School's history occurred. All three basketball teams, Junior Varsity, Varsity girls, and Varsity boys, won. This is the first time all three have won on any given night. They defeated Canterbury in an away game.

The Junior Varsity defeated the Canterbury Junior Varsity 53-27. The high scorer was Jesus Armas with 21 points. The second high scorer was Kent Davis with 11 points.

In the girls' game, the high scorer was Joni Davis with 8 points. The girls defeated Canterbury 26 to 19.

The Varsity team defeated the Canterbury Varsity team by 17 points, with a score of 56 to 39. The high scorer in that game was Mike Graham, with 16 points.

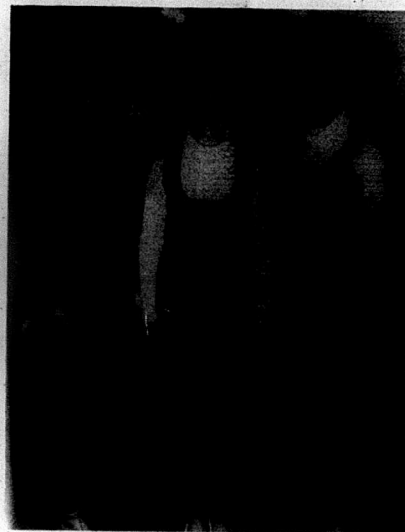

Against Moore Haven on December 10, the Junior Varsity team won by a score of 54 to 49. Again, the leading scorer was Jesus Armas with 18. He was one of three players with scores in the double figures. Second highest score went to Freddie Alvarez with 13, and Carlos Soler had 10.

In other Crusader action against Moore Haven, the girls team won in a close game by only two points. The score was 35 to 33, and the game was won in the last few seconds of the game. Joni Davis lead all the scorers with 14 points, and won the game in clutch free-throwing action. By making 3 of her last 4, Joni pulled out the win in the last few seconds.

The Boys' Varsity team did not play against Moore Haven. After the first three games, all Christian Day School teams have records of 2 and 1.

The next home game will be Friday, December 16th, against Benjamin of West Palm Beach. This game is the Homecoming game, and festivities will be at December 10, the Junior Varsity game, which starts at 8 p.m. The Junior varsity team will play at 6:30 p.m.

HOMECOMING HAPPINESS was anticipated this week by Christian Day School Homecoming Queen candidates Judy Clayton, Lizbet Lutz and Jaron Jones. The local private school has been gearing up for homecoming all week and the three senior princesses took time out of classes Tuesday to advertise the festivities.

Glades Central tops Pahokee girls' team

PAHOKEE-Thursday night two rival teams met at the Pahokee High School gymnasium for a girls basketball game. The teams battling were Pahokee and Glades Central.

Although Pahokee played a competitive game, Glades Central's defense held Pahokee down and came out on top with a final score of 32-25.

Iona Pilgrim scored the first four points for Pahokee. But Glades Central's Tracy Rolle scored ten consecutive points in the first half, giving Glades Central the favored score of 14-6 at the end of the first half.

After half-time, Pahokee came out revived and ready to win. But of course Glades Central had the same thing in mind.

With Sharon Powell entering the game, four points were added to Pahokee's score in the third quarter. Tracy Rolle was still in the game and topped Sharon's four points by adding Glades Central to a score of 28-10 at the end of the third.

With Glades Central in the lead Pahokee wasn't ready to lose the game yet. Iona Pilgrim put four more points on the board, while Sharon Powell added three of her own. Felicia Banks and Patsy Lee also scored in the fourth. But that didn't stop the Raiders for they also scored, giving Glades Central the victory of 32-25 over Pahokee.

Raiders outlast Conchs in varsity basketball

BELLE GLADE-The Glades Central Raiders outlasted the Key West Conchs Friday night in a hometown display of depth and quickness in the final quarter of basketball.

Coach Jay Seider said the Raiders roundballers were sluggish in the first half of play and gave up a 34-30 lead at the halftime but managed to tie the ballgame, 51-51 by the end of the third quarter and came on strong to win the game 75-61.

"We went into a stall in the fourth quarter and made them come out and play us man to man," Seider said. "We beat them, 24-10 in the final period and that was our big quarter. We had more depth on the bench than they did and when we forced them into a man for man defense, some of our boys were quick enough to take advantage of it."

As an example of the Raiders' bench strength, Seider said nine members of the 11-man team scored points during Key West, with Jessie Haynes picking up ten points in the final quarter alone.

Seider said the Raiders still haven't the discipline required to score readily against a zone defense but individual quickness made the difference against the man for man type.

He said both teams had 23 turnovers but while the Conchs scored 17 points on free throws compared to the Raiders' 13, the Raiders out-rebounded the Key West team, 52-31.

Jessie Haynes led the Raider scoring attack, making 20 points and picking up seven rebounds. Rufus Chambers followed by 12 points and nine rebounds and Michael Staples had 12 points and two rebounds.

Arthur Slater had eight points and went to the boards to bring the ball down 17 times while Melvin Weston came off the bench to score eight points and pick off three rebounds; David Jones making seven points and 11 rebounds.

Edgar Arnett making four and three, Joe Byrd making two points and three assisted rebounds and Joe Freeman scoring two points.

The Raiders' next game is Friday night at Boca Raton.

Rotary Club to sponsor

Everyone is invited to local turkey shoot

BELLE GLADE-Fritz Stein and Terry Kirchman, co-chairman of this year's Belle Glade Rotary Club Turkey Shoot, have extended an invitation to everyone in the area to come, enjoy the fun, and try to win a turkey.

The shoot will be held this Friday and Saturday behind Mixson's Florist on Avenue L. Shooting begins at 5 p.m. each evening with special youth shoots being held in addition to the regular shoots from 5-6 p.m.

Tickets for the shoot are on sale from and Rotarian and will also be available at the shoot itself.

In addition to the shoot, a 22 magnum Winchester rifle will be given away Saturday at 9 p.m. The winner must be present in order to win the rifle.

Younger children are being asked to come between the hours specified and .410 shells and guns will be available for their use.

Adults can bring their own 12-gauge shotguns, but guns will be available at the shoot. Shells will be furnished for the price of the ticket.

Tickets are $2 each and approximately 150 turkeys have been ordered by the local club. In each hour, there will be ten shooters and 2 turkeys will be won each hour - the turkeys are "Butterball" brand birds.

This is the Rotary Club's one big fund-raising event of the year and local residents are urged and invited to come on out, win a turkey, and have a little fun.

Fishing good in Belle Glade

Fishing in the Belle Glade area remained good over the week end with nice catches of both bass and specks coming in.

Roy Collins of Columbus, Ind. reported several nice bass including a 6 pounder taken on shiners on Thursday.

Milford Christie of Eldorado, Ill. also brought in a 6 pounder on live shiners on Thursday.

Belle Glade Fisherman Ray Brewer took 5 bass on shiners in the long point area on Saturday with his largest going 8 pounds.

J. D. and Lillian Dobson who are visiting in the Belle Glade Marina Campground reported good catches on Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Dobson landed a 9

Raiders lose to John Leonard

BELLE GLADE—Glades Central blew a 23-0 lead at the end of the first quarter of play Tuesday against John I. Leonard to "give" the game away with fouls and free throws.

The Lancers scored 26 points in 34 tries from the free throw line compared to the Raiders' six for nine in the 68-58 game in Glades Central gymnasium, nullifying the five-field goal edge the Raiders enjoyed for the game.

Raider coach Jay Seider said discipline was the Raiders' major problem when the Belle Glade players began attempting too many outside shots once they built their lead in the first quarter, causing a number of fouls.

Jessie Haynes was the Raiders' leading scorer, making 19 points. He was followed by Michael Staples with 12 points, Arthur Slater with 11, Rufus Chambers with five, David Jones with four, Melvin Weston with three and Edgar Arnett and Tod Darvin with two each.

The Raiders next face action at Boca Raton Friday before entering the Palm Beach Junior College and Fort Myers News-Press tournaments in West Palm Beach and Fort Myers. Their next home game is against Towson Catholic from Baltimore, Md., on Dec. 20.

When it rained, it really poured

BELLE GLADE—Anyone thinking the rash of tender-benders and all that mud Friday was brought on by an extraordinary amount of rain will be happy to have their suspicions confirmed.

More rain fell Friday, according to George Shaw of the Agricultural Research and Education Center weather section, than usually falls in the entire month of December. Shaw said 1.69 inches of the wet stuff was dumped from sudden clouds, to cause numerous minor accidents and almost drown out the Palm Beach County League of Municipalities' annual barbeque at the marina, compared to a 53 year average of 1.56 inches for the month. Shaw said a total of 2.25 inches has fallen so far this month.

RECREATION CORNER

Basketball: League Schedules are available at the Recreation Office beginning Thursday, December 15, 1977, during office hours. League play begins Tuesday, December 20, 1977, at 6:15 p.m. at Lakeshore Middle School Gym - Spectators welcome.

Phelps-Valenzuela are wed November 25

BELLE GLADE—Miss Charlene Ann Phelps became the bride of Homer Martin Valenzuela in a double ring ceremony held at the Days Inn poolside, on Nov. 25 with the Rev. Roy C. Miller officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Phelps of 1119 Stillwell Road in Belle Glade.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Valenzuela of 104 Canfield, Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

The poolside was decorated with a spray of palms at the end of a double flight of stairs and an arch decorated with fern stood in front of the palms. The wedding music was provided by Mrs. Miriam Van Wicklin.

Escorted to the arch by her father, the bride wore a gown of tulle featuring a scoop neckline with embroidered lace. The long sleeves were also trimmed with the same lace. The bride wore a tulle headpiece with a spray of pearls and a shoulder length veil. She carried a fall bouquet of orange roses and white carnations accented with baby's breath.

Miss Sheri Mace, of Belle Glade, served as maid of honor. She wore a rust color polyester crepe gown featuring a scoop neckline with T straps and an empire waistline. A jacket of matching material complimented the dress. She carried a nosegay of fall color carnations. George F. Radford, of Belle Glade, was the best man.

Miss Traci Fritz, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a rust color gill print dress with beige wheat strands and an empire waistline. Her bouquet was identical to the maid of honor.

Ron Pendleton, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a double knit apricot gown with long cuffed sleeves and white beaded buttons at the center of the bodice. Her corsage was apricot carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Civic Center.

The four tier cake decorated in various shades of yellow and orange roses with doves was topped with two cherubs. A table set up with finger sandwiches and hors d'oeuvre was also served. Music for dancing was provided for the guests.

Assisting in serving was Nancy Reeves, Becky Sims, Sylvia Baker, and June Haulcomb. Carolyn Pendleton kept the bride's book and Gene Phelps was in charge of the bar.

Young at Hearts have pot luck

BELLE GLADE-The Young at Heart Senior Citizens met recently for their monthly pot luck luncheon in Jameson Hall and a large group, including guests from Canal Point, enjoyed the fellowship and program.

The highlight of the occasion was the appearance of jolly old Saint Nick who in his jovial manner and his Ho, Ho, Hos, entertained the group by leading them in some Christmas songs by playing the spoons for accompaniment.

This portrayal of Santa was aptly done by Melissa Kuespert. Jim Wierengo gave the invocation and told "What Christmas Means To Me." Jan Bottoms and Dolly Penzel performed in a skit that no doubt came right from Grand Old Opry land. The group were surprised to know that Jan really could sing opera!

Election officers to serve the YAH were as follows: Chairman or President Roy Brown; V. president, Mrs. Bertha Markham; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ann Gay; program chairman, Mrs. Alene McAllister.

Gomez-Navarro say vows in Belle Glade

Miss Alina Maria Gomez became the bride of Leonardo Navarro in a double ring ceremony, Nov. 26 at St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church, with Father Paul Saghy performing the ceremony. Mrs. Sara Fernandez, of Belle Glade, was the organist.

The church was decorated with candelabra pew markers holding white and blue candles. Lady palms and Areca palms decorated the altar. An arrangement of blue carnations and white roses was placed in front of the Virgin Mary. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, Angel H. Gomez.

For her wedding day, Miss Gomez chose a white crepe satin empire-cut gown. It featured a cathedral train and short sleeves made of Alencon lace encrusted with seed pearls, the same lace trimmed the hem and the V-shaped collar. She wore a mantilla, created for her in Mexico, held by a headpiece of flowers. The bouquet was of white miniature roses with the ivory Bible she had for her First Holy Communion placed in the center. The diamond earrings and matching choker she wore were used by her grandmother on her wedding day.

Miss Ana Gomez, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore an A-line peasant styled crepe satin white gown with aqua polka dots. Her hadpiece was an aqua color hat. The flower Miss Gomez carried was made of the same material as the hat.

groom, Miss Cathy Conerly, Miss Maria Escobar, Miss Maria Ruiz, Miss Alma Henry and Mrs. Teresa Camero. Their gowns were styled identical to that of the maid of honor, but were aqua color. Their hats and flowers were made of white aqua polka dotted material.

Guillermo De La Rionda, of Belle Glade was the flower girl and Luis Manuel Gomez, brother of the bride, was the ringbearer.

During the ceremony, Arras, gold coins, a family tradition kept for five generations were used.

The mother of the bride wore a gilt print gown featuring long sleeves. The flower she wore was made of the same material as the gown.

Couple celebrates 50th anniversary

PAHOKEE—The children of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Empierrez of Pahokee announce the fiftieth wedding anniversary of their parents. A reception in their honor will be held in the Reception Hall of the First Baptist church of Pahokee on Sunday, December 18. The reception will begin at 3 p.m. and last until 5 p.m.

All friends and relatives are invited. No local invitations are being sent.

Appeal made for mental retardation

BELLE GLADE—Tricia Graves, program developer of the Glades Area Association of Retarded Citizens, made an appeal Tuesday to the Rotary Club for active membership and community support.

Ms. Graves told the club three percent of the population of the United States suffers some degree of mental retardation and locally, the figure could be closer to seven percent.

She said the educational programs for school-age retarded students in excellent in this area, but that there are no programs for adult or pre-school retarded citizens.

Ms. Graves said she hopes to develop programs for these people, including various trips for retarded adults, social hours, and care of retarded adults and children on special days so their families can enjoy the company of their peers.

"It may not seem right," she told the Rotarians, "but the first five years of a person's life is the most important time of learning."

She said this is the reason pre-school programs are so vital.

In other Rotary news, members were reminded to be sure to attend the Rotary turkey shoot Friday and Saturday and to turn their ticket sale money in.

The club also sent its well-wishes to Bob Matthews, a member and local attorney now recovering from surgery.

Take your refrigerator's temperature.

Fall's here. The temperature's dropping. Your air-conditioner's probably becoming less and less a necessity. And chances are, your electric bill is dropping accordingly. But, we want to help you save even more.

Look around your kitchen. That refrigerator sitting there is usually the third largest user of electricity in the home. And though food preservation's essential to the home 12 months a year, the costs of your refrigerator — and many of the other necessary appliances in your kitchen — can be reduced. Here are a few suggestions:

Keep your refrigerator's temperature no less than 40 degrees. Place a refrigerator thermometer inside (for 15 minutes), then check the reading. If it's colder than 40°, raise the setting on your thermostat. Chances are, you'll be lowering your electric bill. And while you're at it, check the temperature in your freezer. The temperature should be zero. Any lower and you're probably wasting money.

Let foods cool before storing. Before you put leftovers into your refrigerator, let the foods cool to room temperature. And try to cut down on the number of times you open and close your refrigerator door. The savings could be significant.

What about defrosting? A manual defrost refrigerator should be defrosted when the frost layer gets to be about a quarter of an inch thick. This will not only save energy, it'll save wear and tear on your appliance, as well. And if you're shopping for a new refrigerator/freezer, be sure to look for one of the high efficiency models. And remember, frost-free models — though convenient — use more energy than regular models.

Check your refrigerator gaskets for leakage. Close the door on a dollar bill. If you can freely pull it loose, you may have to replace the gaskets. And try to avoid putting your refrigerator next to a stove. If possible, place it in the coolest area of the kitchen.

Only run your dishwasher when it's full. If you don't have a full load, rinse dishes in cool water and store in dishwasher until you do. And measure your detergent carefully. Too much or too little can reduce efficiency. Use your special features like partial load cycles, rinse only cycles when applicable. Energy consumption can be reduced by one third by turning the washer off before it reaches the dry cycle. Simply open the door and allow the dishes to air dry. And be sure to reduce the load on your air-conditioner by using your dishwasher during the cooler part of the day, after 9 p.m. or in the morning.

Cook whole meals in the oven. And everything will be ready at one time. Two or three different dishes can be baked with little more energy than one. And since insulation holds the heat, ovens require energy only periodically.

What's more, when cooking frozen foods in the oven, let them first thaw. Foods require a lot less cooking time when defrosted.

For more money saving hints, ask for our folder "How to save electricity in your kitchen."

It contains all kinds of good suggestions on how to save energy — and money.

Christian Comments

Thurs., Dec. 15, 1977, HERALD-OBSERVER-9B

What is your attitude? Do you know that your attitude is the thoughts you think, the actions you do, and words you speak when you engage your mouth before engaging your brain. I hope as you read the "Ten Rules for Improving Attitudes" that you will reflect on what John B. Gough said as he looked at a drunkard swaying and stumbling down the street. There, but for the grace of God, go I."

As Christians we must remember that God has saved us for a definite purpose; to reach people through the proclamation of what Jesus has done for each of us. You know, it would be wonderful if we stop arguing, stamp out ill feelings, create good will and begin to cause the other fellow to start listening to what we're really saying. What I'm trying to convey is simply this, in order for people to give us the opportunity to proclaim the good news of Jesus, we must first get their attention and certainly we can't do that if our bad attitude is showing. In 1 Corinthians 12:4-7, we see that God gives special abilities and renders different kinds of service in the working of our lives; but even though we have different talents, abilities, and different areas of service, we are all under one God who does the work in and through all of us who are His. The Holy Spirit displays power through each of us as a means of helping the entire church.

- Ten Rules For Improving Attitudes
1. Remind yourself over and over again that you are not perfect, therefore, you would not fit into a congregation of perfect people, if such a congregation existed.
  2. Instead of picking out the worldly, hypocritical member of the church to point to, pick out the sincere, dedicated, spiritual members, and thank God for them. You will find whichever you look for.
  3. If you are old, treat the young with consideration you deserved as a young person. If you are young, treat the old with the respect you will want when you are mature.
  4. When you are tempted to criticize others (Deacons, Pastors, Bible teachers, etc.) be sure to pray earnestly for them first. This cannot only have an effect upon them, but it will also do wonders for your own attitude.
  5. When you see work being neglected, don't be critical, get to work.

6. Never, never, blame others for your own failures. Every individual can be faithful to God in spite of the bad examples and discouraging attitudes of others if he is determined to.

7. Remind yourself every day that the only way you can improve the world and church is to begin with yourself. Make self-improvement a daily goal.

8. Look for good qualities in every brother and sister in Christ. When you think of one in particular, remember them.

9. Constantly strive to increase your circle of associates and loved ones in the church. Try to do something good for each.

10. Every church has problems, constantly ask yourself, "Am I

By Bill Anderson
Pastor First Baptist Church of South Bay

part of the problem or the solution? Am I a crucial supporter or a critical spectator?"
God Bless You All.

Vida Cristiana Latina

JOSE ANTONIO GARCIA

Hoy vamos hablar de un tema del que ya hablamos en Diciembre del año pasado: "EL ORIGEN PAGANO DE LA NAVIDAD". Es posible que usted haya celebrado "La Navidad de nuestro Señor Jesús" y haya creído que el nacio el 25 de Diciembre; como cree generalmente toda la humanidad, ya sea cristiana o pagana. Pero, cuales son los hechos historicos al respecto y cuales son la declaraciones escutas de algunos clerigos catolicos, y de muchas enciclopedias?

No hacemos declaraciones personales, solo dejamos que ellos declaren al respecto. VEAMOS: "El libro ONE SMALL CANDLE" es la narracion de la travesia del arco MAY-FLOWER, y el primer tiempo de los peregrinos en Norte America, el cual declara en parte: "Los peregrinos pasaron por alto la Navidad" (Por no encontrarla en la Biblia). El Libro se publico en forma condensada en espanol en SELECCIONES DEL READER'S DIGEST de mayo de 1964, y en la pagina 111 de esa publicacion salio el siguiente parrafo: "Aunque parezca extraño, el lunes 25 de Diciembre de 1820, fue para ellos otro dia de trabajo". Estos cristianos fervorosos no pudieron encontrar mención alguna de la fiesta de la Navidad en la Biblia; así que sencillamente la pasaron por alto".

Un periodico del Vaticano L'Osservatore della Domenica arrametro contra SANTA CLAUS, como una Sustitucion Nonstruosa de Cristo, que "ofende la fe". Critico el Arbol de la Navidad, como un esfuerzo por sustituir el pesebre...con cierto sentido de naturalismo y paganismo.

En Diciembre de 1960, Francisco X. Weiser sacerdote jesuita en el colegio de Wiston Massachusetts, comparo a SANTA CLAUS con un dios pagano.

La prensa asociada acclamando como de las principales autoridades sobre el tema dijo: En las paginas marchitas del FOLKLORE GERMANICO, muy conocido para estos anglosajones se hallaba el dios pagano TOR. Era el dios de los campesinos, un hombre de edad avanzada jovial, con una barba larga blanca. Su color era el rojo, su elemento el fuego, y las chimeneas eran sagradas para el. En las ocasiones en que dejaba su hogar entre los techos de hielo de la peninsula ocupada por noruega y Suecia frecuentemente descendia por las chimeneas a su elemento. Viajaba en un carro tirado por dos caballos blancos: Cracker y Ganasher (El Evanging News del Neward 9 de Dic. 1960) "Aun un nino podria ver la semejanza entre Santa Claus y del dios pagano Tor".

El Time de New York del 2 de Dic. de 1960 dijo: "Historicamente los aspectos paganos de la temporada son mas antiguos que la religion cristiana. Se hallan en el causal sanguineo de la raza humana, que siempre ha celebrado el Solsticio hiernal (Invernal) Dia 21 bon festijos y diversion. Muchas voces clericales y seglares han repetido estas acusaciones!"

The Catholic Encyclopedia edicion de 1908, tomo III pagina 727 dice: Sin embargo le bien conocida fiesta solar del Natalis Invicti, celebrada el 25 de Diciembre, tiene mucho que arrojarse en cuanto a responsabilidad por nuestra fecha de Diciembre (La Navidad).

Expresa acuerdo con esto el Standard Dictionary of Folklore Mytology, and Legends de Funk y Wagnalls, Tomo I pag. 229. "La correspondencia de la festividad cristiana con el cierre de la observaciones romanas de las Saturnales (Diciembre 17-24) y el Natalis Invicti. Sobre la observacion mitologica del nacimiento del Sol, a menudo se ha mencionado y no es un fenomeno incidental."

El 25 de Diciembre (Navidad) esta bastante cerca del Solsticio hiernal para que otras fiestas paganas del invierno ademas de las Saturnales en celebracion del cambio de ano llegaron a ser absorbidos por el. Y VINO A ADOPTARSE LA NAVIDAD.

Bajo "CHRISTMAS", la Encyclopedia Americana dice Esta celebracion NO se observaba en los primeros siglos de la iglesia cristiana. "La mayoria de las costumbres que ahora se asocian con la Navidad, no eran originalmente costumbres de la Navidad, sino mas bien precristianas, de esas celebraciones se derivó el holorio de la Navidad, hacer festines, dar regalos, encender velas, pues las luces tambien desempenan un papel importante en la mayoria de las fiestas del solsticio de invierno. Bastante concluyente es la evidencia de que la fecha para la celebracion de la Navidad no tiene apoyo en los Evangelios. Hasta la Encyclopedia Catolica toma III pagina 727, tacitamente reconoce que no el nacimiento de Jesus sino "la bien conocida fiesta solar celebrada el 25 de Diciembre lleva la responsabilidad de muchas fiestas celebradas en Diciembre."

Que le parece esta informacion? plagio mantras!, y cooperacion en el paganismo pintando a Dios y a Jesus en falsos colores! Preguntele a su pastor o ministro, y si el de una evasiva (Que de seguro lo hara!) visite la Biblioteca de Belle Glade y por usted mismo verifique la verdad de los hechos. Debido a que el mundo celebre una mentira de alcance mundial, sea usted libre leyendo la Biblia y la historia para conocer la Verdad. Juan 8:32.

LITTLE FRIEND

Any mother can tell about a child's love for her doll, and the world of PRETEND that they live in. They confide in the doll, reprimand them, and care for them.

The church is a real and true friend. The church may be counted on in times of need, in times of trouble, and in times of sorrow. The church also wants to share in your times of joy.

"A friend loveth at all times."
